VIA: Deputy Director for Intelligence 7
Associate Deputy Director for Intelligence

FROM:

SUBJECT: Talking Points for 19 November Cabinet Meeting on Research and Development

25X1

1. Attached are possible talking points for the 19 November Cabinet meeting on research and development.

2. We believe that the quantity, quality, and direction of US R&D, relative to foreign competitors, is an important issue, but we find the OSTP memorandum to be too general. Their approach suggests a lack of awareness of the extensive nature of foreign government thrusts in promoting industrial growth, especially with regard to high-technology industries.
